14. A receipt will be emailed to the person listed from Step 11. It will include Payment Instructions for arranging a bank transfer to the TransferMate bank account.
15. Visit your local bank in person or use your online banking app to arrange the bank transfer. Note: TransferMate must receive the payment in their account within 48 hours to secure the locked rate for the bank transfer transaction.

Note: If your local country uses a payment partner (such as dLocal or Geoswift), TransferMate will always require a payment receipt before proceeding to next steps. Please direct any questions about this to TransferMate support.
16. After funds are sent from the international bank and received by TransferMate, a final email will be sent to the person listed as the recipient (from Step 11) confirming the transfer was successful
